The CHAIRMAN-I do not think so. I think that will cover everything. I was anxious to put everything in a satisfactory position, so I made full provision to do so, with your permission, this year; and I am very glad the sense of the meeting seems to be in unish with my own ideas on the subject. Mr. Wicking -It seems to me that although written off it is not an actual loss to the company. Probably a much smaller sum would compensate for the deterioration of the sign The CHAISMAN-It is always best, I think, to understate, not overstate your assets.

Mr. Wicking-Quite so The CHAIRMAN The amount written off thi year makes everything very satisfactory, looking at it from a solid business point of view. Mr. ARNOLD There will be nothing more to write down next year ? The CHAIRMAN - Nothing more to write down that ought to have been written down this year.

I cannot, of course, anticipate anything. Mr. Wicking-The average som written of for depreciation in the past ar yours has been $3.0.0. I suppose that is what you may fairly anticipate in the future? everything in the fainte.
